CONFIDENTIAL, DELIBERATIVE COMMUNICATION**

Governor,

First, from now on I will be communicating from my state email (bruce_anders@dnr.state.ak.us) to your state email. But not having access to either right now, I am sending this message to your personal address in the interest of getting you this information ASAP. Please let me know which address you would prefer my using to receive updates, and who should be on that distribution list.

Commissioner Rutherford asked that I act as "conduit" to the Governor's office on our gasline workgroup's progress. This is my first briefing (please let me know if this update provides too little or too much information, and I will tailor future reports to your preferences). I don't know how you intend to use Joe Balash (or if you intend to use him at all on this), but for the time being, feel free to direct any and all pipeline-related questions my way.

Coordination.

In the meantime, we do have one request. From here forward, every step must be developed within the confines of a carefully crafted overarching strategy. Therefore, if you, or any other members of your staff intend to ask other people or departments to work on some aspect of the gasline project, we would appreciate that our work group coordinate that input.

Please direct any reaction hereto, questions, or guidance to bruce_anders@dnr.state.ak.us, or call me at 269-8775, or on my cell at

CORRECTION: Quote from Commissioner Monegan missing from initial release.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: December 12, 2006

No. 06-006A

Governor Palin Will Sell Jet

(Juneau) - Governor Sarah Palin today directed Department of Public Safety Commissioner, Walt Monegan, to sell the jet that was purchased by former Governor Frank Murkowski's administration. The Westwind II will be put up for auction on eBay.

"The purchase of the jet was impractical and unwise and it's time to get rid of it," said Governor Palin. "In the meantime, I am keeping my promise not to set foot on the jet."

Commissioner Walt Monegan said, "The jet doesn't meet the Department of Public Safety's mission profile due to the requirement for long, paved runways."

The State has successfully used eBay in the past to sell State assets, including the Bartlett, a former Marine Highways ferry, and several Public Safety aircraft. The State's surplus property disposal policy is to use eBay for high value, mobile assets because it offers the widest possible exposure for these types of sales, at a low cost.

The jet was purchased for $2,692,600 in November 2005 by the Murkowski administration. Until final sale, Governor Palin has authorized the Department of Public Safety to use the jet for suitable operational purposes.

Subject: University funding
Date: Wednesday, December 13, 2006 1:04:04 PM

Governor:

The FY 08 GF operating request from the university was $351.8 million. Based on the proposed FY 08 funding for the University of $333.2 million, the state is not funding $18.5 million of their request (5.6%). It should be noted that the $333.2 million represents a $50.8 million increase from last year's budget of $282.4 (approximate 18% increase from last year). The items that were not funded appear to be mostly program expansions. Below is a list of requested items from the University's request not funded:

3,866.8	Additional non-discretionary cost increases (e.g. facility costs, bandwidth)	$
8,078.8	Preparing Alaskans for Jobs (expansion)	$
6,000.0	University Research Investment (Phase 2)	$
2,000.0	Accountability, e.g. student success, advising, college readiness	$
	Total Unfunded request
$18,576.6

The total increase in funding ($50.8 million) from FY 07 is broken down as follows:

$37,023.3	PERS/TRS Retirement Increase
282.7	Fuel (net increase over FY07)
12,988.8	Salary and benefit increases
(1.0)	License Plate one-time item (net)
400.0	Risk Management
	Transfer from DNR for Science Adviser	—
150.0
	Total increase from FY 07 Budget
$50,843.8

On the capital side, the university is requesting approximately $332.1 million for capital and the base budget is funding approximately $24.2 million (Federal & other funds). Murkowski's budget funded $49.7 million. I will get Mike Tibbles a list of capital item requested but not funded. If you need any other information, please let me know.

Governor Sarah Palin
State of Alaska
Office of the Governor
PO Box 11001
Juneau, AK 99811-0001

Dear Governor Palin:

As a former Juneau Empire reporter, adjunct university public relations instructor and Deputy Director of Communications for the State I am always disappointed when my former media colleagues leave out information that is critical for public understanding of a news story. I am moved to write to you today, because the story in this morning's Juneau Empire about John Mackinnon is an example of just such a story.

The facts:

From day one of his involvement in local and state government John Mackinnon has fully divulged all of his business interests. All those involved on both sides of the road issue have been aware for many years of the Mackinnon family business interests. When John took a job with both city and state government, he not only divulged his potential conflict of interest, he sought out an attorney general's office ethics opinion and was up front and completely honorable in avoiding even the appearance of involvement by never taking part in any discussions, policy meetings, or actions that crossed an ethical line.

Ethics laws were written to allow experienced people to participate in state service. There has to be a line that allows competent, dedicated and experienced people to work in government. That is what the ethics laws regarding conflict of interest are designed to do and in Mr. Mackinnon's situation, what they have done.

The person the Juneau Empire consistently refers to in its articles only as "Juneau Attorney Joe Geldhof" actually has more of a conflict of interest than Mr. Mackinnon – a conflict which the Empire's reporting chooses to ignore. Mr. Geldhof, a longtime member of multiple environmental organizations in opposition to any resource development, is General Counsel to the union representing state ferry workers – workers he fears will lose jobs if a road is built to the capital. Mr. Geldhof has been paid for more than eight years to make sure ferry workers interests are protected – something he personally equates with making sure a road to the capital doesn't get built. Unfortunately, the Juneau Empire left out the fact that Mr. Geldhof represents these workers, allowing him to throw out innuendo of ethical lapses to advance his agenda, without the same accountability under which local, state and federal employees must be scrutinized.

Governor Palin, you have rightfully called state officials to the highest ethical standards. Those are the standards to which Mr. Mackinnon has held himself in his dealings as Deputy Commissioner. I would hate to see the media allow your call to the highest ethical standards be used as a stone for those with their own personal or political agendas to throw at people without accountability or cause.

I will continue to pray for your success and the success of your administration. It was a pleasure to meet you and your family and help welcome you to Juneau. I know you have a big job ahead of you and I pray that God will continue to bless you.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Susan Stark Christianson". The signature is written in dark ink and has a fluid, connected style.

The ADN will run a story by Lisa Demer most likely this weekend on Office of Children's Services completing its federal Performance Improvement Plan. DHSS sent out a press release on this about a month ago and this story resulted from that release.

We think it'll be fairly positive since we were successful, but we do have some areas that we still feel need improvement – which we were honest with her at the time of the interview.

Lisa used to be pretty unpredictable but she has come around because of the effort we have put into working with her. So I BELIEVE it will be positive, but I can't guarantee it'll be ALL good.

Governor,

The Denali Commission produces an annual report that includes a letter from both the Federal and State Co-Chairs. I have attached a copy of a draft prepared by Sharon Guenther Lind (PIO for the Denali Commission) for your signature. We have not talked about your thoughts of the Denali Commission so it would be helpful if you could let me know if the general direction of the letter is acceptable. I have included last year's letter from Frank Murkowski for comparison.

Mike

Dear Alaskans:

Seven years ago, Alaska joined the newly created Denali Commission in an innovative partnership with a valuable mission—to provide critical rural infrastructure in the most cost effective manner. The Denali Commission's work improves the quality of life for many Alaskans, at a time when 27 percent of rural Alaska households are below the poverty level and many communities lack basic infrastructure that other states take for granted.

The Denali Commission has partnered with an array of federal, state, tribal, Indian, and nongovernmental entities to achieve results, including upgrading rural bulk fuel facilities, improving access and delivery of health care, and providing jobs.

The first regional energy program in Alaska, the Middle Kuskokwim Regional Energy Program, has provided an ability to leverage planning, resources, and costs for long-term energy savings. By working with the Denali Commission, the Alaska Department of Health and Social Services has improved both access to and delivery of health care to rural areas by leveraging its limited resources. For the first time, residents of the Aleutian Chain have access to round-the-clock urgent care with a clinic in St. Paul this year, constructed ahead of schedule.

In addition, Alaska's priority "Bring the Kids Home" initiative has resulted in a youth psychiatric facility in Juneau, through partnering with the Denali Commission, providing support and options for families of children with mental illness.

We are also working together to find solutions by which we can harvest our abundant resources and provide good paying jobs in our rural communities. Ensuring that basic, sustainable infrastructure is in place will be a foundation on which economic opportunities can be built. By responsibly developing our resources, we can provide jobs so that Alaskans in school today, can find jobs to raise their families and start their careers, here in Alaska.

We have made tremendous strides in realizing Senator Ted Stevens' vision for the commission. On behalf of the State of Alaska, we look forward to a better future for all Alaskans and continued success of the Denali Commission.

Sincerely yours,

Governor Frank H. Murkowski

Governor Sarah Palin
Office of Boards and Commissions Priority Report

Prepared by: Ivy Frye
12/15/06

I. Immediate Priorities

Alaska Retirement and Management Board (ARMB):

The state of Alaska lost NEA-Alaska vs. Governor Murkowski last week in Superior Court. The deadline to appeal is January 3, 2007.

Mike Barnhill from the Dept of Law (focuses on Boards and Commissions) would like to go over options with Governor Palin, Mike Tibbles, and Attorney General Colberg.

- Dr. Richard Solie (appointed 9/10/06) must be replaced with 1 of 4 names that NEA-Alaska submits to Governor Palin.
- Gail Schubert and Larry Semmens seats expire 3/1/07

Background:

There was an understanding between NEA and the Administration that Governor Murkowski would re-appoint Gayle Harbo and Sam Trivette to the public TRS and PRS seats if NEA supported Dr. Richard Solie for the other open TRS seat. Tom Boutin, Deputy Commissioner of Revenue, worked with Bill Bjork, President of NEA-Alaska to come to the agreement. Murkowski took over three months to re-appoint Harbo and Trivette and in the mean time the agreement fell apart.

Murkowski appointed Dr. Solie and NEA sued the state of Alaska for failing to abide by state statute (which says the Governor must appoint members that have been nominated by NEA). NEA says they never reached an agreement with the Administration. Dr. Solie has 40 years of economic experience and is more qualified than the other NEA nominations (see list). Dr. Solie was a supporter of SB 141 while it was still in committee. NEA opposed SB 141.

Board of Regents:

Governor Palin's appointments must be submitted to the Legislature no later than 5 days after the first day of session, January 16.

4 seats expire 2/1/07. Legislative Confirmation.
Tim Brady and Frances Rose from Anchorage
Brian Rogers and Joe Usibelli from Fairbanks

7 people have applied thus far. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Board of Game:

2 seats expire 3/1/07. Legislative Confirmation.
Kristie Tibbles is the Board contact and can shed insight.

Bob Bell: "Last minute" Murkowski appointment (appt 11/28/06). Bell needs to be confirmed by the Legislature. [REDACTED]. On ANC Assembly for several years. [REDACTED]

Ben Grussendorf: Appt in 2001 by Knowles. Former Dem. Legislator from Juneau and may not be interested in being re-appointed.

Judicial Council:

1 seat expires 3/1/07. Legislative Confirmation.

Eleanor Andrews. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Parole Board:

1 seat expires 1/1/2007.

Michael Stark. Retired attorney from Juneau. App't by Knowles in 2002.

Commissioner Schmidt may have some ideas on nominations.
The Parole Board meets approximately 150 days per year. $250 per day.

Regulatory Commission of Alaska (RCA):

1 seat expires 3/1/07.

Kate Giard is the chair.

Statehood Celebration Commission:

The Chair and Vice Chair are appointed by the Governor. The Commission terminates in 2009 after the 50th Anniversary of Statehood Celebration takes place,

- Gail Phillips, Chair.
- Christopher Constant, Vice-Chair.

executive/deliberative process privilege

II. Secondary Priorities

Alaska Industrial Development and Export Authority (AIDEA):

1 seat expires 6/30/07.

John Winther holds the expiring seat. executive deliberative process privilege

This board typically sees a lot of applicants.

6 people have applied already — 2 of them are from Mat-Su (Lois Whitaker, Wasilla and Larry Wood, Palmer).

Board of Fish:

2 seats expire 6/30/07. Legislative Confirmation.

Art Nelson (appt in 2003). executive deliberative process privilege

Robert Heyano (appt in 2004). Per Alan Austerman, he's not sure if he wants to be re-appointed.

executive deliberative process privilege

Mental Health Trust (Need names from Mental Health Trust):

1 seat expires 3/1/07. Legislative Confirmation.

John Malone (Bethel). The seat needs to go to somebody in rural Alaska.

The Mental Health Trust nominates names for the Governor. Denny DeWitt, Jeff Jessee or Marty Rutherford are good people to talk to regarding this Trust.

Permanent Fund Dividend Board:

1 seat expires 7/1/07.

Bill Hudson is the seat holder. executive deliberative process privilege

Pat Galvin and Talis Colberg will be new members.

executive deliberative process privilege

Professional Teaching Practices (need names from NEA):

3 seats expire 3/1/07. Legislative Confirmation.

NEA-Alaska must submit names for 2 of the seats belonging to classroom teachers. I'll call Bill Bjork, President of NEA to expedite the request for nominations. Will also talk to Heath family and other teachers to solicit their advice. Any teacher that is part of the bargaining unit can apply through NEA.

- Cynthia Curran (appt by Knowles in 2001)
- Mark Doner (classroom teacher appt in 2003)
- Jeffrey Hebard (classroom teacher appt in 2006)

Public Office Commission:

1 seat expires 3/1/07. Legislative Confirmation.

Names must be submitted from Alaska Democratic Party. I'll request those names from Jake Metcalfe. The seat will need to be replaced with a person from Southeast Alaska.

- John Dapcevich, Democrat from Juneau.

Seafood Marketing Institute:

3 seats expire 6/30/07.

Alan Austerman, or whomever the Fish Policy Advisor, will have a good idea of who to appoint or re-appoint.

- Kevin Adams, Anchorage (appt in 2004). executive deliberative process privilege
- Duncan Fields, Kodiak (appt in 2004). Fisher/ attorney/ consultant.

Governor,

From your last email, ("impatient friends wondering why they haven't read anything in the papers this week on gasline progress. And I've had three reminders this week from legislators that they're waiting..."), I sense that you are looking for some language in hand to respond to these folks. Or alternatively perhaps, to have something to post to a state site to which you could refer folks.

In response, today I created a concise gasline process "status report" to disseminate orally or via whatever means you deem appropriate. Our workgroup had a long strategy session tonight (we are hitting it again hard tomorrow), and the attached doc reflects the workgroup-approved language.

executive, deliberative process privilege

A difficult balance to strike was including enough info to get people off your back, while not being overly specific about the process to unfold, as much of that is as yet unclear. I think we struck that delicate balance, but please tell me if you want more or less, and I'll get a refined version back to you ASAP. Anyway, the document is attached.

Also included are likely follow-up questions you'll be asked, with proposed responses.

Bruce

PS Talis and I are meeting Tuesday at 2:00.

This is more to be prepared for tomorrow. I saw this as a budget question at first. Obviously becomes more than that tomorrow.

Hi Meghan,

This is Andrew Damstedt at the Ketchikan Daily News and I was told you were the person to email about my questions.

Next Tuesday there is a meeting in Ketchikan about the Alaska-British Columbia hydroelectric intertie. I am writing an advance article to that and I was wondering whether Gov. Palin was planning on including funding in the budget for either the Alaska-British Columbia intertie or the Swan Lake-Tyee Lake intertie.

And I was wondering whether Gov. Palin had any comments on the interties etc.

Thanks,

Andrew Damstedt

Governor and Mike,

I've updated my reports for the boards attached above. Included are current applicants applying, past applicants, and my thoughts on each board. These reports are similar to the one I put together for the Board of Regents. I'm sorry if they are confusing. I am more than happy to talk to one or both of you in person. In fact, I think it would be beneficial to me, and hopefully to both of you, to make sure I am going in the right direction.

Susan and Kristie (Babcock) have been very helpful. John Bitney and Mike have also been very insightful. It has also helped to call on some of my friends and Palin supporters in other regions of the state. So far so good, I think.

Please let me know if you need anything else.

I want to thank you for reappointing me. I will do everything within my power to confirm your trust and to achieve the high ideals that you have established for the members of your administration. In short, you can count on my dedication, loyalty, and best efforts in behalf of the Palin Administration and the people of Alaska.

I strongly support your political philosophy of limited government, protection of the Alaska constitution, responsible natural resource development, and fiscal responsibility, among other things. With the changes in Congress and the waning authority of the Bush Administration, some of these precepts may be under challenge in DC. I look forward to working with you and other members of the Palin Administration to enhance Alaska's relationship with the Federal Government and to prevent federal encroachment on traditional state prerogatives.

When the dust settles, I would appreciate the opportunity to talk with you and Mike Tibbles about federal priority's and the DC office. As 2006 comes to a close, I look forward with renewed energy and enthusiasm to the challenges and opportunities that Alaska will face in the coming year.

I hope that you and your family had a wonderful Christmas.

Please note that my email address has changed. My new email address is jwkatz@alaskadc.org. Thank you .
